Inmate Access to Information from ADCRR's Inmate Data Search:

Pursuant to A.R.S. section 31-221(E), an inmate "shall not have access to any prisoner records other than viewing the prisoner's own automated summary record file." This means that, other than the ACIS report that inmates are allowed to receive once a year, they may not have any other information about their own or any other inmate's prison record. This includes information regarding inmates downloaded and copied from the Arizona Department of Corrections, Rehabilitation & Reentry website. If this information is sent to an inmate, it shall be treated as contraband. The sender will be liable to prosecution under A.R.S. section 13-2505 "Promoting Prison Contraband." This is a Class 5 felony subject to two and a half years in the Department of Corrections.

Note: Release dates and types have not been verified or audited by the Department and are subject to change. Details of inmate offenses can be accessed by reviewing the case file at the Office of the Clerk of the Court where the case was adjudicated.
