

You are here: Home >> Auction Highlights >> Two-Day Winter Auction Highlights – Jan. 25-26, 2020

Two-Day Winter Auction Highlights – Jan. 25-26, 2020

Thank you for a record-setting January 25th & 26th two day sale! Over 6000 registered bidders participated internationally, achieving the highest total sales and highest-selling lot in company history. Highlights included the William Edmondson “Preacher” sculpture realizing $540,000, and a new auction record for a Carroll Cloar (TN, 1913-1993) painting, realizing $66,000. Other highlights included a GIA certified 4.18 carat round brilliant diamond (VVS2, E) realizing $78,000 and an Andrew Clemens patriotic sand art bottle realizing $66,000. All prices realized include the buyer’s premium.

If you are interested in consigning items of this quality for future auctions, please contact us at info@caseantiques.com.

(Note: Prices realized include a buyer's premium.)