Dear Madam Eman,

I didn't receive your reply till now.

Please explain the attachments refund receipt by United Airlines ???!!!

As per your email that net received amount for Air tickets = $ 4822.75

And as per the attached refund form by united airlines total refunds (with ZERO penalties) = $ 4759.25

i believe that Luftahansa didn't deduct any penalties as i have an official email from them (Attached) that the tickets are United Airlines stock not related to LH.

So ,please explain to me what happened exactly ,and why you deduct $ 951.85 as air tickets refund penalties??? in case that there is any error ,please transfer the amount to my bank account as well.

And I need the support refund documents for all trip elements (Disney tickets & Car rental and House rental) to be audited by me as a customer.

Please consider this email with a high priority and I need your reply ASAP.

Thanks and appreciated.
