Hi Mark,

This is David, you sent me pictures of Kyra yesterday.
I do have a couple of questions:
1. What is the lineage European, American or mixed?
2. When you sent the pictures of Kyra, was that based on your recommendation for a puppy that is confident and social or just pictures of one of the puppies available?
3. Once payment is made, how long would it be until we could pick him up at the airport?

Thanks,

David

Yesterday 4:39 PM

I signed the contract and sent it back. I just want to make sure that once I make the payment t tonight, I will receive Kyra tomorrow?

Thank you,

David

Yes sure. U will

Yesterday 6:57 PM

Payment was made by Venmo. You should have received notification.

Today 9:19 AM

I received the shipping notification. If I am reading it correctly, it says the puppy is going to be picked up today by noon and delivered to me tomorrow? I thought you said 9 hours for travel. I can pick the puppy up from the airport, it is less than 10 miles from my home.

Hi sorry I miss ur call could u text me as am at work

I just spoke with your shipping company and they are not going to deliver the dog with me putting up another $1620 which I am not going to do. And the dog will not be delivered until tomorrow according to the tracking information. The agreement we had was $200 for shipping and a total of 9 hours for the puppy to be delivered once

I understand .I just talk with them and they require payment to be made so they can proceed. The payment is refundable upon arrival of the puppy. What I can do best is to come up with 500.$ and once they refund you please you can send back my own 500$

Thanks.

No. You told me you covered the shipping. This as a complete surprise to me as there was never any mention of it prior to this. Please refund all monies paid.

But this is about the puppy creat

If we need to request for refund they will deduct some charges and we won't get completely amount back. Plz if I had more I would not mind paying

Let's share the cost

Again, if you had let me know about this up front I would not have an issue but you did not do that. I was lead to believe the $200 was the full shipping price. As I previously

If the money was truly refundable, you wouldn't be asking me to split it.
Please refund all monies paid.

Sir I didn't know either.

And I don't have that amount that's why am willing to contribute 500 or 600

You were only paid last night.
Please refund my money or I will submit a case though both Venmo and the courthouse.

I paid the shipping company today

Ok yes u can take to court

I paid them for shipping already so I don't have exact money u sent. And if I go to cancel. We will be charge

I am fine with being charged the cancellation fee.
Is this a new shipper you are using? If not, I find it hard to believe you did not know about this charge. If they are willing to refund the money, why are they even asking for it in the first place.

Is new. My first time using them

Sir I hv copy of the mail so if we go to court I will present aswell. Is not my fault. Let's pay so they can proceed . They said I will have to come and sign the papers.

We then let's use who you normally do. Your website says I can pick the puppy up at the airport. I would prefer to do that.

I have a copy of the contract as well as all pages of your website.

Yes they can either follow ur

Yes they can either follow ur address to do a home delivery or u can pick at the airport

So plz pay 1000 and I will pay the rest

I want to pick the puppy up at the airport. Please change the shipper and sent the puppy. I am not going to pay another $1000. It makes no sense, if it is refundable unless it's a scam.

Am tired I will go cancel and what ever they ask I will deduct from your money paid 900

I'll accept that as long as it is no less than $700.

I understand you likely won't get the shipping fee refunded to you

Ok

Will update u
