Bankcard dispute

Alert: when you present a dispute to a credit card company, whatever you say at the beginning is the ONLY thing they'll consider. therefore, I failed to introduce everything all on my initial complaint file and that's the ONLY reason I lost.

Re: Case Number 21 12
NOT AS DESCRIBED – Get RICH Scheme
Merchant: CON XXXXXXXXXXXX S 11/22/2020 for $997.00

1. Their partner company for which I had originally joined are Private lenders (cix.com), They have the same strict rules as Conventional banks so this was a waste of investment for me in joining. They weren't able to get me approved despite the fact that my credit was good enough and I had plenty of equity for the same reason conventional banks had declined me. They were expected to help me and are expected to work outside the box in comparison to conventional banks. They are known as Loan Sharks. They provide mortgages that do not meet the guidelines of Government Sponsored Enterprises (GSE) such as Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac so they are expected to offer flexibility in exchange for their higher rates.
2. CC co. name ORS is a Get RICH Scheme! See pictures enclosed.
3. Their competitors will never admit that the service is defective because they do the same thing. They would never admit that. Also:
 - a. It is POLICY amongst all businesses and also unethical for competitors to generate a letter badmouthing their competitor's service regardless how defective it is or how poorly they matched the description. It would be impossible for me to generate that request even if they could win my business (especially if I have a dispute, they may just not want my business). Too task-full and unfair of a request.
 - i. This would never happen as it can generate a lawsuit.
4. I was unable to FULLY view their refund policy/agreement. I took a picture of it because I was unable to download or copy it. I was unable to also scroll and read it.
5. The main website is NOT as they say it would be. I purchased PIN 5 which would be the top. Their videos shows something that is superior and they fail to direct me to that updated site which simply doesn't exist on my end.
 - a. This was NOT GOODS. And the web service was NOT as described. PIN5 is supposed to be the top yet every time they came out with a new TOP site, they claimed mine would merge it and/or be the same. I never saw the same Backoffice as in their seminars. I will attach a lot of back/forth emails on the quality of the main page.
6. A main part of their service is to provide skip trace/leads/contacts of owners who should want to sell. They even rate the motivation levels without knowing them or even verifying their contact info.
7. See enclosed emails and chats on how the merchant failed to try and resolve the problem of their lenders failing to be able to approve me. Why would I join if it weren't for the fact that they have PRIVATE LENDERS who could help me get involved by giving me a loan against my equity.

Proof of cancellation

See enclosed email/letter.

Proof of return

This was a service. NOT a product.

Kindly reverse the charges BACK to my account. This is a pricy tag wherein I trusted the service but I was suckered into FAULSE HOPE.

Thank you.

To protect myself I am blocking the Co's name. However, the links are all over this site. TY. Ripoff may require me to remove their reports below which I found interesting but that's okay if they do, I'll be happy to comply. I just wanted to share some interesting comments made by other buyers!

Dear Prospective Customers:

Just save yourself from the aggravation in disputing either incorrectly and/or disputing at all. SIMPLY AVOID THE PROBLEM LOSS OF ENERGY AND FUNDS AND "DON'T BUY from a membership from this company!!!!!!

Below is what the bank requested based on my original complaint which left out some important factors which were later explained but too late for them to accept them (my letter grew in extensiveness a bit too late)

If you still want to continue with this dispute, please send us a signed and dated letter that includes your case number, the merchant's name, the date of the transaction, and the disputed amount by 04/06/2021. Please also provide the following information in your letter:

1 Your response to the documentation sent in by the merchant, as well as: A copy of your sales invoice or purchase agreement / contract, and any other available documentation to support how the service you ordered differed from what was received.² A second opinion on company letterhead from another merchant in the same field that states how the service was defective or did not match the description of your sales invoice. A statement that includes the number of times the merchant tried to correct the problem and a description of how you tried to resolve the dispute with the merchant. If you cancelled the service and / or returned the merchandise or installed parts, provide the date and proof of cancellation/return or the date the merchandise was made available for pick-up. If the merchant gave you a refund voucher, please provide that as well.

1 The sales invoice failed to allow me to print it at the time of purchase. Therefore, it was a popup which wouldn't even scroll down (may have been a glitch) I had no idea what the 'contract said although at a much later date, I logged in and located it but it was too late and my rights had expired.

As explained on Item #3 in my letter on the 1st page:

2 Their competitors will never admit that the service is defective because they do the same thing. They would never admit that. Also: a. It is POLICY amongst all businesses and also unethical for competitors to generate a letter badmouthing their competitor's service regardless how defective it is or how poorly they matched the description. It would be impossible for me to generate that request even if they could win my business (especially if I have a dispute, they may just not want my business). Too task-full and unfair of a request.

- i. This would never happen as it can generate a lawsuit.

I'm not customer support - I work with members in getting the set up and started with training Support will be the best option for questions regarding PIN. If you need help with locating a training video, I can help!

So much for the automation!

RE Investments PIN automated system (PIN5 Taraus Deas) • Jan 7, 10:07 PM

I found them. But I don't understand why your lenders who are private can't get me preapproved. I don't know how I can do this without that assistance. I have equity, my home is paid for yet because of a delayed foreclosure, I'm in 3 years rather than 4 so I can't get approved. So... what's the difference between private lenders and bankers? I'm not seeing a difference. I thought there would be a difference here for me. the only thing I can do with your services is micro flip and I have to see if this is what I can do. It's not what I had intended to do. I want to buy, hold or buy and fix/flip. I wasn't prepared for the micro end of it which appears to be the only option. I hope you don't read this until tomorrow... Just getting it out before I'm busy tomorrow. SORRY!

Jan 7, 10:50 PM

The micro-flip strategy can set you up to do fix&flip or buy&hold later on. If you can't get approved from lenders, start there. This is an instance where we have to crawl before running or walking. Micro-flips = $5K-$20K checks!! That is good money!

micro-flip are assignments, you sign a sales agreement and then assign it to a 'real' buyer. You don't need this company to do it!

RE Investments PIN automated system (PIN5 Taraus Deas) • Jan 8, 11:46 AM

how can I buy/hold if I can't even get approved through your lenders due to a delayed foreclosure issue? I even have equity. I joined thinking I can use private lenders. Now, I'm limited. I'm trying to get a friend to back me up financially but I doubt it'll happen. all i can do seems like is assignments

I'm between a rock and a hard place right now. I can't believe that not even your lenders can get me approved. I joined to have financial backing. Now, I know I don't have it. Doesn't exist due to something minor in my past although I almost have a 700 score.

This is discouraging.

I'm not up to micro flips. This is NOT why I joined.

So, I'm going to be gentle. What can I do? Or, what can you do to help?

I got a good enough feel for the system. Currently, this system is just not what I expected. I never got the same screen as the PLUS and the few leads I thought were a match had bad contacts.

You ignored my concerns but suddenly are showing interest in my much earlier complaints. For now, I think I'll pass. Once the foreclosure clears, I would consider returning. TY.

So this is their login page. Get funding? So, basically they share most of same rules as do conventional banks.

Basically, if you don't get approved by a lender, then while Their Private lenders appear to be in the business of helping, they won't make a difference. I joined thinking I'd have financial backing. I had equity and a paid off house. I only had one minor glitch for which conventional lenders declined me. Guess what, Their so called private lenders, they weren't any difference. So, I trusted them Paid $997 which was a 'special' only to see that I was back where I started. Because I was busy at a job, I was unable to learn of their shortcomings within the 30 days and I do have in writing which is why I was given an extra month as I delayed. But, the that extra month was not part of the 30 day money back, however.

They have expensive monthly charges as well so we had negotiated this. I find it is common negotiation and if you don't negotiate, you'll just ending upaying an additional exorbanant amount.

PS: Having a real estate background myself, I never met an investor who I asked if they are a member of any similar groups said YES. They were all independent and worked with Real Estate Agents.

The help this company offers is really in the end, NO HELP AT ALL, in my experience! Basically, they have forums which already exist in social media sites as groups/blogs.

I was initially inspired to join Connected Investors because they appeared to offer a complete package. The lender end of it is just as strict as any conventional lender.

Financial assistance is a very important part of it to people like me. How can I invest without funds? I have equity, a decent credit score yet one minor issue kept me from being approved by them. This is NOT a good deal!

This is just one of the many reasons why I cancelled. I kept giving them excuses and held off as long as I could.

Everywhere you look on social media, you see people telling you how they bought property without using much if any of their own money. So naturally, that means they're using someone else's...
