Hi Amelia,

Lol. my question was when was i going to be getting the deposit back.

You were informed 30 day in advance i was moving out. Thus I am willing to pay $1395.

I did the cleaning and laundry and all that is typical for renting a space. i have done it 5 times in my US life and never had an issue with it.thus I am not paying for any additional cleaning. That is part of the landlords expenses.

I am expecting to get back $414 which is 1809 minus 1395 . if I do not see that on my PayPal acc. Until the end of the month of January 2021, i will take some actions.

thank you.

Sladjana

Ps. REviews are very important. You do not need more of bad ones lol.
