Sherrie. You said No to a press release about a young black man with Down syndrome ...who DIED ..you were PAID for June ...you lack of care compassion and concerns about black businesses disturbs me ...I'm beyond hurt disappointed and pissed there's nothing you can say to make me understand why you're so hateful and mean and only wanna look out for BIGGER BUSINESSES.....I am confident one day you're be exposed for the bad representation you give black businesses. I'm not gonna go back in forth with you. I just wanted it noted you said NO to a press release for a black boy who died ...you are inconsiderate and I don't care who you know or who you represent you DID NOT properly market Hoodies4Healing PERIOD

Hello,

Seeing it's a holiday I'm sure he will contact you once in office tomorrow.

To be very CLEAR, you did not pay that for a month of service and you signed a contract for exactly what you are getting work wise.

$3000 was BACK PAYMENT from 2019 when you never paid your bill for work rendered. Which from that contract you signed, you actually owe much more than we charged you as I was being generous to you. We had been attempting to contact you for almost 2 years while you ignored our calls and emails. I also did not charge you late fees or for the remaining months that were in that contract that you never paid.

The $2500 payments were for May & June. Which we have a full May report that outlines the scope of work fulfilled. That is what you signed a contract for, and Hey lady. How are you.

The little boy that we design and sold
hoodies for in March.
Died this morning

Can you help me put press release together.
I would like to help pay for the funeral

Delivered

I highly suggest you learn how to treat and represent people better especially with all the money your company make in the black community... and the next time you tell a black business woman she BEG ..don't put it in writing after you're PAID ..$8000
