If you don't want to resend then do as you wish its all left for you to decide.
I still repeat there's no way we'll receive payment and deny it.

Someone @ your email address? Someone @ your email address used a $100 Amazon gift card and there is only $0.67 left! So you think we're done, no delivery?
Really!

Means someone else used the card and not us I thought we were done here but since you're not resending the payment is fine it's all your decision because I wonder why $100 is more than you to complete payment and receive order with your refunds. I didn't know we'll end up not delivering your package yesterday.

We understand how you feel but this is our only means to help solve the issue after receiving your compliant if not then there's absolutely nothing we can do again to help.

Let's be clear your emails have enabled anther complaint, even a civil lawsuit.

Once I show my SSI verification letter which shows I only receive $447 monthly I will have no fees, not even processing or serving of the lawsuit to you. That's why it took 2 months before I could place the order.

Your company is clearly not transparent about its charges. Your use of Zelle is against their policies.

I tried to protect myself by checking your company out with the same organizations I filed complaints with.

To send you additional money would prove how much of a fool I've been & am.

That's the reason exactly. Doubt! It was create before order was placed. The receipt alone started it. Not to repeat the report but I clearly asked " what are the total charges". I was told $175 to deliver to me, which I sent. My receipt says $150.

For the benefits of doubts why not complete the $100 payment so we can deliver your products because that's the only way we can solve this issue after receiving your compliant messages from BBB. Let me know!

This order is over, cancelled which is why I reported to BBB. FTC & RipoffReports.com. I want all money refunded. After the way the former company didn't give full disclosure of full costs upfront & kept adding more costs, then agreeing to $100 Amazon Gift Certificate, which I reluctantly did, I can not, will not send you any money. Just like I wouldn't send the previous company any additional money.
