I got it done with Zelle, although I don't prefer Zelle. Next round guide me on which app is favorable. Here is snapshot of successful payment. In Florida now so wondering if I should change delivery address. Depends on how long shipping takes. Let me know so the address is proper.

Just tried again with PayPal and it was denied. Now switching to Zelle with new name. But for what I call Samuel Rae to receive this email must be registered with Zelle. I'll try old email with Zelle first and see what I get.

Trying to pay the invoice above but PayPal keeps giving an error message saying, "yesterday", they could not process. Then today saying the suggested PayPal email recipient can't accept payments right now. Thoughts? Or should I call in?
