Hi,

I collected a hell of a lot of data for you and I was trying to submit it multiple times before 7pm only for it to end up failing during the transfer after the upteenth attempt to upload this data. 😞

I am asking for payout be because of multiple issues with the app including a sudden update that made me delete multiple apps for space before I could even work on the vues, for multiple upload malfunctions, payout amounts changed yesterday from $10 to $8, and for some reason you have changed the due time from 8pm to 7pm when the place closes at 8pm. There were almost 30 minutes of time spent collecting all of this only for this to happen.

This really needs to be fixed and fairly compensated.

THIS IS GETTING VERY FRUSTRATING REAL FAST! 🤔

I've been going back and forth for over a week repeating information that is already in the email feed about what happened!

As I stated before, your app malfunctioned and would not let me upload my competed Vue data after multiple attempts before the expiration time. I have provided the vue# and all other information and then it takes 2-3 days before someone responds as if I never sent any information to you in the first place.

If this is not professionally resolved within the next response from your side I am going to file multiple complaints and negative reviews.

I hate dealing with this system because if anything goes wrong you are a stroke to get it fixed, if fixed at all, and that is not right. My time, data, and effort is worth something!!!!
