Hello Ms. Kathy,

I'm sorry our call dropped. I was not able to get back through, I left a voicemail providing case 113122757. As we discussed, I will be reaching out to our internal Billing team and see if this is a technical issue to quickly get it resolved. I understand your concern when it comes to this amount of funds and I do apologize this has not yet been resolved. I will be monitoring your billing case for updates and I will be watching for tech cases if there are any created for this issue. Please try to have a great weekend and be safe. Thank you so much for speaking with me today.

Regards,

Amy

Hello Kathy,

I hope this message finds you well. After reviewing your case updates with our internal team, we wanted to follow up.

Cross-team collaboration is necessary to thoroughly investigate and resolve concerns as promptly and equitably as possible.

Our internal Billing team was able to get the technical issue worked out and has re-processed your refund for reservation HA-MD5C39.

We have provided a detailed summary of our conversation to our Executive team. We wanted to be sure that they understood your issue and received your feedback.

Thank you for bringing this matter to our attention and for your patience while we worked to resolve the concerns you raised. We appreciate the time and effort you made to communicate this situation.

We consider this issue to be resolved. If you need help with something else, please Contact Us or visit the Vrbo Help Center.

Regards,

Amy
