

We deleted all your plugins to show that we need to install another third party theme.

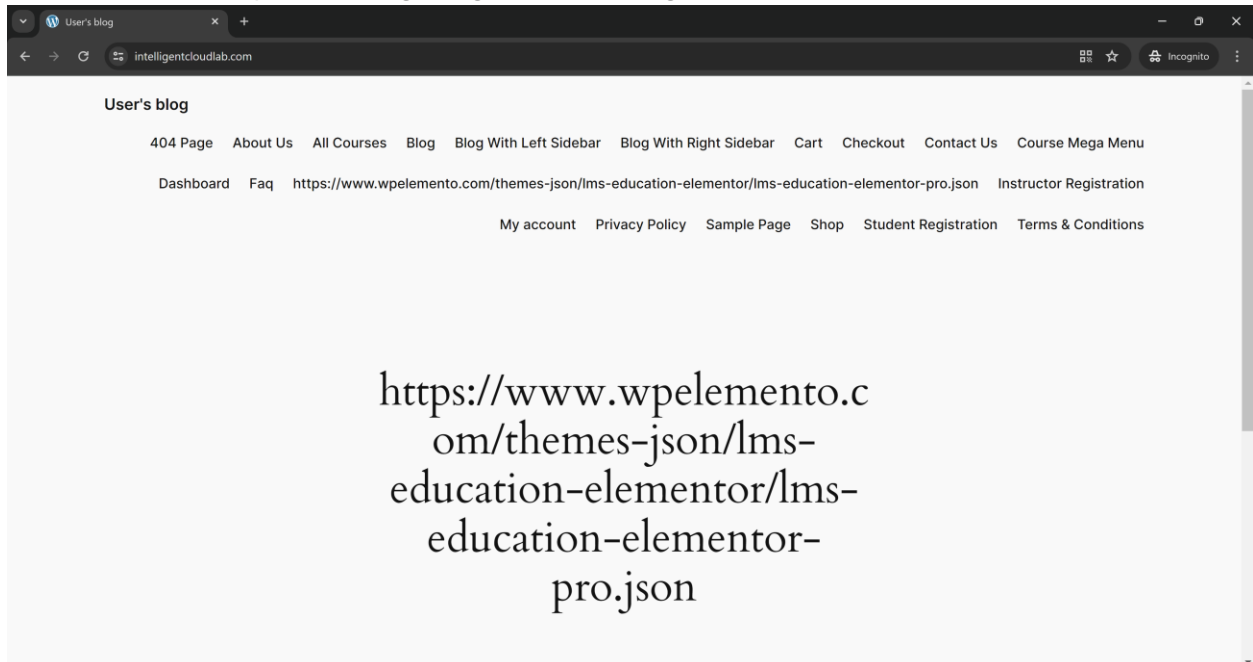

As a matter of fact we deleted all plugins from the site so that we can install a new template.

We activated a sample site but getting this from incognito browser.

Now I will have to install cache plugin to delete the cache or spin a new server. This is absolutely unethical to install malware so that the theme never gets deleted without an expert help.